

Contents

Foreword by Carol Homden	i
<hr/>
1 Introduction	1
The beginnings of FfA legislation and practice guidance	1
Use of focus groups and questionnaires	2
Terminology and remit of this guide	3
What this book covers	3
<hr/>
2 The development of Fostering for Adoption as a route to early permanence	5
The concurrent planning model	5
The Fostering for Adoption (FfA) model	7
Use of FfA	10
<hr/>
3 Fostering for Adoption legislation	11
England	11
Wales	18
<hr/>
4 Who are the children?	23
Circumstances leading to an FfA placement	25
Checklist for practitioners	37
<hr/>
5 Care planning and placement	38
Actions of the local authority	38
Tools to aid decision making	39
The decision-making process	41
Identifying an appropriate FfA placement	41
Ensuring that the placement meets the child's needs	42
Contact arrangements	43
Barriers to considering early permanence	48
The role and influence of the courts	50
Routes to placement	52
The position of birth parents	53
Pre-placement matching considerations	57
Checklist for practitioners	58

6 Recruitment, preparation, assessment and approval of Fostering for Adoption carers	59
Recruitment of FfA carers	59
Checklist for practitioners	62
Preparation of FfA carers	63
Preparation for the fostering role	66
Checklist for practitioners	68
Assessment of FfA carers	69
Checklist for practitioners	77

7 Managing the fostering placement	78
Delegated authority	80
Provision of information and confidentiality	81
Support	82
Training	83
Financial and practical support	84
Contact	86
Security and confidentiality	90
When there is a challenge to the local authority plan or the child returns to their birth family	91

8 Progressing the adoption match	95
Matching considerations	95
The role of the matching panel	97
Attendance at panel	99

9 Post-match considerations and adoption support	101
Becoming an adoption placement	101
Adoption support	103
Adoption support for contact	105

Conclusion	108
Key areas to consider	109
Final thoughts from concurrent planning and FfA carers	111

Bibliography	114
Appendix 1: Early permanence carers	117
Appendix 2: Early permanence screening matrix	120
Appendix 3: Early permanence planning: referral form	122
Appendix 4: Concurrency and Fostering for Adoption checklist for social workers	126
Appendix 5: Early permanence placements: information for health care professionals	132
Appendix 6: Consideration for contact arrangements for children in Fostering for Adoption placements	136
Appendix 7: Early permanence: information for parents	139
Appendix 8: Fostering for Adoption workbook	141
Appendix 9: Information for friends, family, employers and colleagues of Fostering for Adoption carers	145
Appendix 10: Fostering for Adoption Carer Agreement	150
